

Freedom is for the Birds

Jodi Sutherland

Freedom Is For The Birds is a book of animal fiction. It is a riveting, heartwarming story about a family of red-tailed hawks. Come enter the world of animals . . . where you can forget about the stress of: your job or school, the daily commutes in rush hour traffic, money and banking, insurance, transportation, and taxes. In the world of animals, the only things you have to stress about are the safety of your family, and surviving to thrive in a world of humans. Now that is something to worry about.

In the reality of today's society of extreme conflict and humanity's dangerous de-evolution of morals, Freedom Is For The Birds is also a human manifesto in disguise - because humanity truly needs a lesson on morals, manners, and compassion.

FREEDOM IS FOR THE BIRDS

$1 from every sale is being donated to wildlife facilities to help with the medical expenses and food for injured/orphaned wildlife.

Available to buy as an eBook from iBooks and Amazon

Keep up-to-date: Website | Twitter | Facebook | Goodreads

About me - JM Sutherland

I am a Canadian, living in Calgary, and I am a lifetime wildlife enthusiast. I am extremely passionate about animals and their rights, and giving animals a voice for freedom from abuse or being killed, their loss of habitat or being kidnapped for captivity. The book, my tweets and my facebook page all reflect that passion.

If you would like a copy of 'Freedom is for the Birds' to read, review or feature, please contact Kris Barnes of Authoramp. J M Sutherland is also available for interviews and guest blogging.

